Cod Piece Armor Left

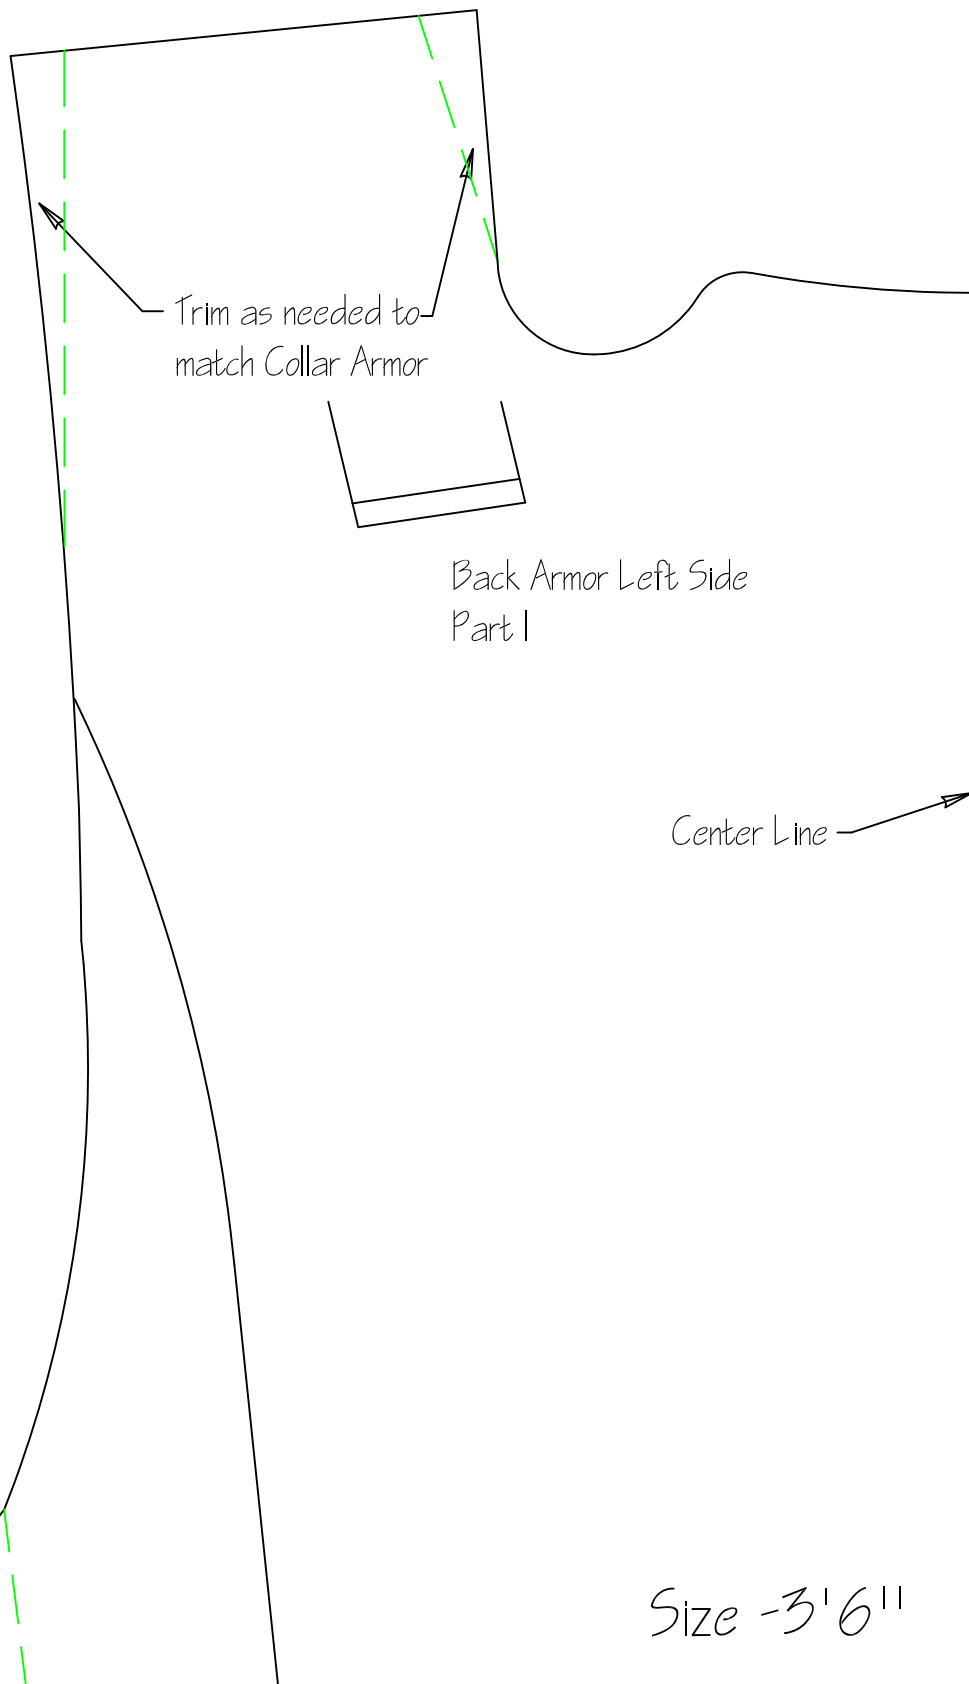

This is a technical drawing of a piece of armor, specifically a cod piece for the left side. The drawing is contained within a rectangular frame. It shows a curved, asymmetrical shape that would fit over the groin and upper thigh. The top edge is a straight horizontal line. The left side is defined by a vertical line and a curved boundary. The right side is a smooth, sweeping curve that tapers towards the bottom. The bottom edge is a straight horizontal line. The text 'Size -3'6"' is written in the top left corner, and 'Cod Piece Armor Left' is written in the upper right area of the drawing.
